

My So-Called Normal Life Workshop

The Autism Society of Oregon (ASO) is hosting a Sibling Support Workshop for grade school aged children (ages 8 to 11). This workshop will give brothers and sisters of children with special needs a chance to receive peer support, discuss their sibling relationship and explore the ways having a sibling with special needs can be frustrating AND inspirational!

The workshop will be facilitated by 2 professionals of the community:

Ellen Baltus, LCSW is a Child Development Specialist in the North Clackamas School District and also has a private practice. She has been a social worker for over 25 years. She has an adult sister with special needs who volunteers for the Autism Society of Oregon.

Leslie Carter, Ph.D is a psychologist in private practice. She provides psychological evaluations and treatment for individuals of all ages emphasizing learning problems, developmental disabilities, and general mental health issues. She has a son on the Autism Spectrum.

Dates: Saturdays, Feb 25., March 3, March 10 & March 17, 2012

Time: 11:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. (Lunch will be served!)

Place: Moreland Presbyterian Church,
1814 SE Bybee Street
Portland, OR 97202

Cost: $10 per session ($40 total) (Scholarships Available)

To facilitate interaction, the Workshops are limited to 12 children.

Pre-Registration is required. To pre-register, or for more information, including scholarship requests, please contact ASO at (503) 636-1676 or info@oregonautism.com.

Sponsored by: The Autism Society of Oregon (ASO)
www.oregonautism.com